Description:

Sharing the first 0.5 miles with the Baker Lake Trail No. 610, enjoy an easy amble through cedar groves, mossy rock gardens, and alongside the pristine river - a preview of what lies ahead. The two trails diverge at a suspension bridge.

Families with small children may prefer to enjoy the suspension bridge as an end destination - there's lots to see and do, and the water beckons as do the sand and rocks along the picturesque shore. If it's a hot day, plan on little feet getting wet.

For those who would like to cover more ground on an easy hike, continue across the bridge on what becomes Baker Lake Trail.

Please note that if you decide to skip the bridge and continue along the left side of the river on Baker River Trail, no dogs are allowed
